"What sets Lori apart from other real estate professionals is her authentic passion for helping you be happy. We never once felt pressured or that we were being steered in a specific direction just for the sake of a sale. Lori did a great job at laying out all the facts about the county, the surrounding area and roads, and the property itself. The experience you are receiving is hands on and genuine. As both a real estate agent and a kind human being, she wants to take care of all the aspects of home buying for you, even the small details. Lastly, Lori is extremely responsive. Any time of the day or week, she was accessible via a phone call, an e-mail, or a text message. We found this to be of utmost importance when getting through the stress of home-buying. could have ever expected. You will find Lori to be helpful, passionate, and caring. You can tell she loves what she does. Lori got the job done right for us and have no hesitation in recommending her service."

Cory and Erin S. - NW St. Johns County

"Lori was a lifesaver. I decided that I wanted to move to a new home, but before I could sign the contract on the new place, I had to have a listing agreement on my current home. I reached out to Lori, and within a couple of days she and I met, went over comps for my neighborhood and had the listing agreement signed. Lori kept me informed during the entire process and was always available if I had any questions. Lori was also able to help me with my new home, which was new construction. She was a great liaison between myself and the builder, and again, was always available for any questions or concerns that I had. She was able to attend walkthroughs when I was not able to and was a great second set of eyes on my final walkthrough. I highly recommend Lori and will use her again." Kaelin M., Bartram Springs Area of Jacksonville, Florida

"Lori Dreisbach is hands down, the best in the business! She simultaneously sold both my parents' and my father-in-law's homes in less than 2 weeks and walked them step-by-step through the daunting process of securing the purchase of their new homes. My family cannot say enough amazing things about her and her work-ethic. Her warm personality, optimistic attitude, moral integrity, and sharp business acumen sets her apart from other realtors and agents. Despite her busy schedule, Lori always makes you feel like you are her highest priority because the dedication she has for her clients and their needs is unparalleled. Even though we experienced so many road blocks with selling our homes, she never once wavered in keeping us motivated and constantly assured us that everything would work out in the end, and it did! She is fiercely protective of her clients, always looking out for their best interest and she will not let anyone take advantage of them. But she is also so approachable and is so diligent about keeping you updated on every new development in your home-selling and home-buying process. She is extremely well organized and is always ready to provide you with whatever you need because of her fast response time. With 30 years of real estate experience, you can count on Lori to bring her wealth of knowledge and calm wisdom to the entire transaction process. "We just wanted to send a note of thanks for all of the hard work you did to sell our home. We had become so disheartened because it had been on the market for about 5 months when we found you. You just took control and we did not have to do anything. We really appreciate your constant contact daily with us informing us of market values, new listings in our area and feedback on the showings for our home. In only 4 weeks, you had a contract and then another 3 weeks we were closing and we are just thrilled. Thank you again for your support and professionalism through the complete process. "Both my husband and I are grateful for the role that Lori played in the selling of our home - she was not our listing agent, but was the realtor who engaged our eventual buyers. Since we were in a position to compare agents, I feel compelled to note a striking difference between Lori and our representative. Lori was the professional we turned to if we wanted honest, problem solving solutions throughout the selling process. We appreciated her knowledge and sensitivity to all parties involved. If we move again in the future, I would not hesitate to call Lori and ask her to represent us. "...We were all so thrilled when the first family that looked at my parents' home put an offer on it. Little did we know that the buyers would be so difficult. I have to say that throughout this long difficult procedure you were very efficient and encouraging. From the beginning when the Moving Consultant from Wind Crest suggested that we work with you, she had a very good feeling about you. She even stated that you felt like a concerned friend. This compassion was exactly what we needed in dealing with a difficult move for my elderly parents. You were great about including me on all of the correspondence and in being respectful and thoughtful of my parents. I can't thank you enough for making this difficult process more palatable. Your professionalism and experience were evident through every step. I would highly recommend you for any seller, but especially the elderly who need a little more time and thoughtfulness. Best wishes for good luck and success in your future endeavors." -Gayle H. (Denver, Colorado – Daughter of Sellers)

"Words cannot express the measure of gratitude we hold toward Lori Dreisbach for her professionalism, expertise, & diligence in helping us find a new home in Jacksonville, Florida. We love our home, the neighborhood, and the Jacksonville community at large!

As out-of-state buyers, we floundered in every uncertainty: from location to price. The literature Lori provided, along with her internet resources, was extremely helpful in navigating us through the toughest decisions. She became our eyes & ears on the ground, which couldn't have been easy, as we investigated and narrowed our focus & search.

Lori's experience in the market, along with her ability to translate a client's mindset, really came into play. Her knowledge of the neighborhoods, home construction, and attention to our peripheral needs (inspectors, insurance providers, and working with sellers, banks, and tradesmen), was invaluable in giving us the peace of mind that we were making all the right decisions. No Reservations, we'd highly recommend Lori to anyone in need of professional real estate services. We not only found a wonderful home in Jacksonville; we found a lifelong friend in Lori Dreisbach. We simply couldn't be happier!"

"Lori, I want you to know how much I and my family who worked with you, appreciate the great job you did in helping to sell my house. Your patience, attention to detail, positive outlook and communication with us and the buyer was outstanding. My wife and I were into renting property for over 50 years. We managed and did repairs on most of it ourselves. In New Hampshire, Delaware, Maryland, Vermont and South Carolina. We dealt with many realtors and you are the best we ever had."
